

Privacy Policy and Security Statement

Information Collection, Use, and Sharing

Samena only has access to and collects information if you enter it into the website. We will use your information to contact you regarding the reason you contacted us. We may also contact you about future services and programs or changes to this privacy policy. The only reason your information will be shared with an entity other than Samena is through our third-party applications (Daxco, Constant Contact, Google) that provide our online payment services, newsletter services, and analytics. We will not sell, trade or rent your information.

Your Access to and Control Over Information

You may contact the Front Desk at 425-746-1160 to see what data we have about you, change/correct any data we have about you, and have us delete any data we have about you. You can opt-out of all Samena emails by clicking "unsubscribe" on the bottom of the email.

Registration

In order to sign up or pay for any Samena services or programs online, a user must first register with their information through the Daxco registration portal (name, birthdate, contact information). To utilize Samena's services or programs, you must provide contact information and financial information (credit card number for payment). We use this information to contact you about any services or programs for which you have registered.

Cookies and Web Statistics

Samena uses cookies through Google Analytics. The Daxco registration portal may use cookies to allow you to stay logged in to your account, and prevent the need to log in multiple times. You can set your own cookie settings through your internet browser.

Third Party Disclosure

Samena does not sell, trade, rent, or otherwise transfer any personally identifiable information to outside parties other than website hosting partners and other parties that assist us in operating our website, conducting business, and serving users, and only as long as those parties agree to keep this information confidential. These include Daxco, which is the portal through which we take registration and payments. We may also release information when appropriate to comply with the law, enforce site policies, or protect rights, property, or safety.

Security

Any sensitive information submitted via the website is protected both online and offline. Wherever we collect sensitive information (such as credit card numbers), that information is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way.
